

3 hours workshop on

HANDLING DEPARTMENTAL NOTICES

Under Income Tax Ordinance, 2001

Workshop Objectives

Now a day, FBR is issuing notices under different provisions of the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001, especially where found some variation between data available with FBR and declared by the Taxpayers. This 3 hour session aims at to develop reasonable practical skills among the participants to understand the legal and factual position of these notices and to handle these notices in a professional manner, including but not limited to:

- Section 176 (Notice to obtain information or evidence)
- Section 177 (Audit)
- Section 121 (Best Judgment Assessment)
- Section 122 (Amendment of Assessment)
- Section 214C (Selection for audit by the Board)
- Section 214D (Automatic selection for audit)
- Section 161 (Failure to pay tax collected or deducted)
- Section 182 (Penalties)
- Section 205 (Default Surcharge) etc.

This session will further enlighten best practices and skills required for maintenance of records in accordance with the provisions of Income Tax Law and presentation of such records in a professional manner. Further, comprehensive knowledge regarding rights and obligations of a taxpayer and powers of the revenue authorities will be delivered through practical examples and case studies.

At the end of the session, participants will be able to handle notices with confidence by using major legal aspects along with strategic planning to avoid undue burden of tax.
