Objectives:

The Federal Government's recent changes in the Sales Tax Rules have made it more crucial than ever for registered businesses to fully understand the law's intricacies. This full day training workshop will equip you with the knowledge and skills you need to navigate the complexities of Sales Tax compliance and avoid unnecessary tax burden and legal disputes.

This sales tax workshop also aims at to equip the participants with the knowledge and skills to navigate the critical issues arising from recent and proposed changes by Federal Government in the federal sales tax law and rules, with a focus on the government's emphasis on enhanced documentation and direct reporting of taxpayers' sales through integration with the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR). The workshop will provide in-depth understanding of the new and existing regulations. Participants will gain the expertise to handle all sales tax matters professionally, ensuring compliance and minimizing risks associated with audits and penalties.

This workshop further aims to equip tax professionals with a comprehensive understanding of the revised sales tax rules. Through interactive session, participants will delve into the changes outlined in latest notifications, with a primary focus on engaging in practical discussions aimed at addressing everyday challenges that may arise from these updates. This will foster clear comprehension and practical application of the revised sales tax rules.

By participating in this workshop, you will gain a comprehensive understanding of:

- The key provisions of the Sales Tax Act, 1990 and the Sales Tax Rules, 2006 including but not limited to the scope of tax, chargeability, input adjustments, record keeping and POS integration requirements.
- Recent changes and their implications for your business operations.
- Effective strategies to ensure compliance and minimize tax liability.
- Practical tips for record-keeping and data management to streamline your compliance processes.
